

COACH GETS SCRAPBOOK — A leather bound scrapbook containing clippings and pictures depicting “This Is Your Success”, was presented Coach Kayo Emmot this morning in the Victory Assembly at the Independence Community College. The book bearing Emmot’s name in gold, was presented on behalf of the High School Pep Club by Hoite Caston, master of ceremonies. The pep club members had collected the material for the book.

(Reporter Photo)

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Coach Emmot Honored at Assembly

Tables were turned on Coach Walter Emmot this morning at a victory assembly at Independence Community College. Emmot was the unsuspecting event star at a “This Is Your Success.” program (patterned along “ This Is Your Life” lines). He had planned to make his annual awards, but the students decided to celebrate their win over Coffeyville and the capture of the Southeast Kansas League title by honoring the head coach. Hoite Caston was master of ceremonies.

Participating in the skit were Mrs.. Emmot and the couple’s three children, Andrea, Bill and Ray. Also taking part were Calvin Crigger, assistant coach, members of the squad, Athletic Director Frank Sicks, Supt.

Lonnie Wood, and Jim Randolph and Bill Boomis, who had acted as scouts this season.

Recognition was given Lloyd Mordy and the school band; Don Dancer who had taken motion pictures of the games; the High School Pep Club and the cheer leaders and Dean Fred Cinotto.

Coach Emmot was then given the opportunity to make his awards.

The members of the team elected Pack St. Clair and Joe Hill as co-captains for the season. St. Clair also received a trophy for the most valuable back. The most valuable lineman’s trophy went to Ron Boulanger. The honor of being the most inspirational player, designed by the team was conferred on Jerry Brouhard, Brouhard presented the Coffeyville Independence traveling trophy to the school. It was accepted by the Athletic Director Sicks. This trophy goes annually to the winning school. Independence has had it two years in a row.

Announcement of the Southeast Kansas team was made during the assembly. Joe Hill and Pack St. Clair are on it as backs. Lineman are Bill Thompson, Ron Boulanger and David Sicks. Receiving honorable mention are Larry Shook, Dan Plake, Rex Roberts and Gary Leabo.

The program was concluded with the school song. High school classes were then dismissed for the day.